

General terms and conditions for use for image requests from the collection

- When permission is granted, it is for the one-time use of the images and only for the purpose that has been agreed upon.
- Permission must be requested again for republication or for use for different purposes.
- Images of objects remain the property of the Zaans Museum.
- The user is responsible for requesting permission from any external copyright owners for the publication of the requested images.
- Reproductions are delivered in digital format only.
- For labour-intensive recordings of the object, the Zaans Museum reserves the right to apply different rates.
- The prices are excluding 21% VAT.
- The invoice must be paid within fourteen days after the order has been delivered.
- The author's copy of the publication or other medium for which the images were requested must be sent to the Zaans Museum at no cost, as soon as possible after it has been published. The author's copy is to be sent to:
Zaans Museum
attn: Afdeling Collectie
Schansend 7
1509 AW Zaandam
The Netherlands
- For publications or other public use, the origins of the material must always be reported as:

Zaans Museum, Zaandam